

Gift Policy of United Under Arts, Inc.

United Under Arts, Inc. solicits and accepts gifts for purposes that will help the Corporation further and fulfill its mission.

Donations and other forms of support will generally be accepted from individuals, partnerships, corporations, foundations, government agencies, or other entities, subject to the following limitations:

- United Under Arts, Inc. will not accept donations that would result in the Corporation losing its status as an IRC § 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization.
 - United Under Arts, Inc. will not accept donations or support from any political organization. We define a political organization as an organization, incorporated or unincorporated, that is involved in the political process. These organizations include those that advocate or lobby for a specific political campaign, candidate, ideology, or law, political parties, or any other organization whose purpose is to influence or attempt to influence the passage / repeal of a law at the federal, state, or local level or the selection, nomination, election or appointment of an individual to a federal, state or local public office or office.
- A gift may not be given in exchange for benefit to a private interest such as advertising for a for-profit corporation. What may be given in exchange is a sponsorship package, if eligible.
- These types of gifts will be held for review by the Board of Directors and, if necessary, legal counsel prior to being accepted or denied:

- Gifts of securities that are subject to restrictions or buy-sell agreements.
- Gifts that come with documents naming the Corporation as a trustee or requiring the Corporation to act in any fiduciary capacity.
- Gifts requiring the Corporation to assume financial or other obligations.
- Transactions with actual or potential conflicts of interest.
- Gifts of real estate
- Gifts of life insurance
- Gifts of property which may be subject to environmental or other regulatory restrictions.
